Strong leaders are made, not born.

All proceeds of this event will be used to directly support youth and Scouting programs throughout the Metro-West.

Since 1996 the Knox Trail Council, Boy Scouts of America has faithfully served as a unifying network of young men and women participating in the character-building programs of scouting. Today, the Council oversees the activities and training of more than 2000 adult volunteers and more than 5600 area Scouts.

Trust, loyalty and honor. These are the values of today's most influential leaders. Chances are, today's strong leaders in business, government, and the community were once and still are members of the Boy Scouts of America.

The Boy Scouts of America has a proud tradition of preparing young people for leadership with character-building programs that instill timeless values. Strong leaders bring strong values to our community. Trust, loyalty and honor are not just ways of Scouting—they are a way of life.
